

Customer --> Ticket:
This relationship indicates that each customer can purchase zero or more tickets, and each ticket is associated with exactly one customer.

Movie --> Ticket:
This relationship signifies that each movie can have zero or more tickets sold, and each ticket is associated with exactly one movie.

Customer --> Concession Transaction:
This relationship indicates that each customer can make zero or more transactions for concessions, and each concession transaction is associated with exactly one customer.

Concession --> Concession Transaction:
This relationship signifies that each concession item can be part of zero or more transactions, and each concession transaction is associated with exactly one concession item.

